

PORTUGAL

CASE STUDY N° 7

PAPER B

MANISA NIHAL AKÇURA OTELCİLİK VE TURİZM MESLEK LİSESİ
MANISA
TURKEY

WHY NOT TRY? / IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA TO ...

- A. Motivation changes according to the task they are learning.
- B. Playful activities would be great to bring them together.
- C. In English subjects, if the trainer sets the scene for joyful activities during role plays that may learning better.
- D. Mature ones can contribute their life experience deal with subject they are working on.
- E. We can prepare a simple questionnaire to check the trainees' interests for taking part actively during the course.
- F. Peer corrections. (Learners can correct each other's work)
- G. Dictation work. There is a runner and writer in the activity. Runner runs towards the board and reads the text stuck on the board and the writer writes what the reader reads.

NECESSARY CONDITIONS: MATERIAL / PLACE / TIME

Materials; educational materials, such as; smart board, PCs, music player and some real objects used in class.

Place; Classes at an organisation.

Time: Depends on the educational programme.

POSSIBLE OBSTACLES

- Staff should be patient .
- Lack of concentration for mixed class with different age groups .
- Behavioral barriers

ILLUSTRATION

Peer Correction

Life experience

Dictation

Questionnaire